

Bio

Shelly Kew, born Nichelle Renee Askew is an up and coming author raised in Evanston, IL. She graduated Summa Cum Laude from Robert Morris University and has worked in the legal profession for over ten years. She has been writing as a hobby for years, until she finally decided to make her dreams reality and turn those writings into published novels. Shelly Kew creates stories her readers can relate to and portrays characters that are dealing with some of the same complex issues her readers deal with.
