

FBRANDS

THE TEAM

Name: DeJuan A. Kea

Position: Co-Founder

Summary: Co-founded, FBrands, a real estate and clean technology company. FBrands exclusively focus on clean and green real estate development assets in the areas of mixed-use commercial, residential communities, and solar farms. Mr. Kea background consists of serving as Senior Advisor on federal and state regulatory matters for fortune 500 companies, local governments, and businesses in the areas of finances, healthcare, K-12 & higher education, public utilities, energy, and economic development. Additionally, his development experience also spans to the hospitality, entertainment, commercial, and residential industries.

Name: Senyo Ador

Position: Co-Founder

Summary: Mr. Ador is a seasoned business professional with years of experience in the United States and Global markets. He is the lead executive of I-Technology Management Group, which oversees the development of power distribution in West African countries. He manages the relationships with the World Bank, International Monetary Fund, United States Export-Import Bank, and African Development Bank. He handles all international relations for I-Technology Management Group, which includes business transactions with the following entities: Ministry of Power and Ministry of Finance in ECOWAS Countries as well the Ministry of Entertainment of Culture in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia.

Name: DeAndre Allen

Position: Co-Founder

Summary: Mr. Allen is a real estate developer with a passion for developing evolving communities. As one of the co-founders of FBrands, LLC, DeAndre and his partners develop commercial real estate in Illinois and neighboring states. DeAndre has worked with federal, state and local elected officials as a community liaison, developing relationships between the officials and community stakeholders. DeAndre also brings experience in the hospitality industry from his time working with the Cincinnati Convention and Visitors Bureau where he identified, developed and secured new business opportunities for the city. In his personal time, DeAndre dedicates himself to mentoring and advocacy for disenfranchised communities.